

Foreign Languages at School in Europe

The Barcelona European Council of 2002 invited EU countries to take action to teach children at least 2 foreign languages from a very early age

At what age must students start learning foreign languages?

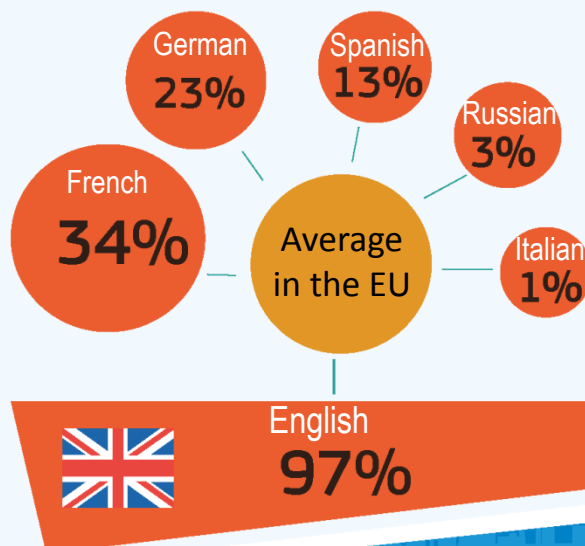

In 19 education systems, students must start learning foreign languages earlier than they did in 2003

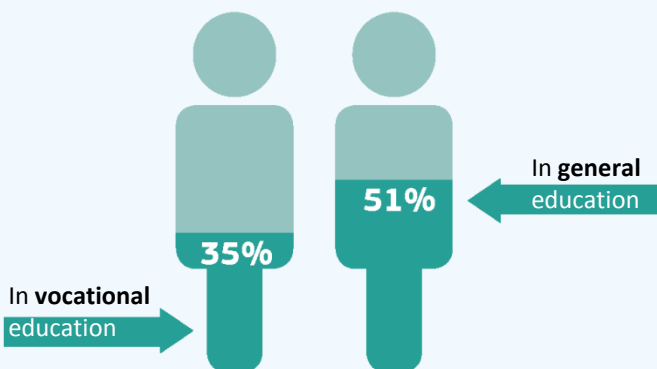

In 11 education systems, learning a 2nd foreign language is not compulsory

Most learnt languages in lower secondary education

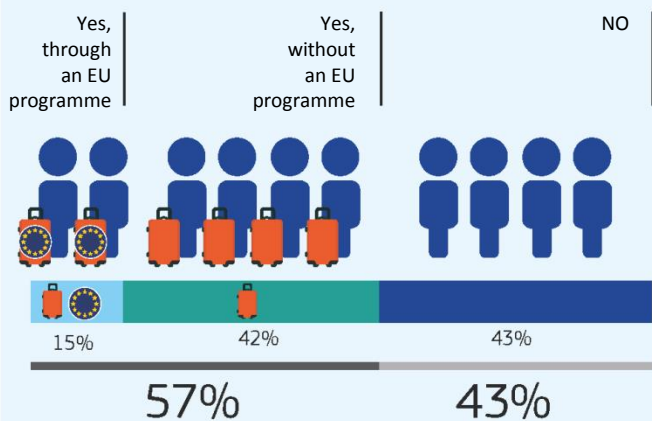

Vocational education students have less opportunity to learn 2 foreign languages

Foreign Languages at School in Europe

Do foreign language teachers travel abroad for professional reasons?

Did you know?

5-10% of the primary curriculum is dedicated to foreign language learning in the EU

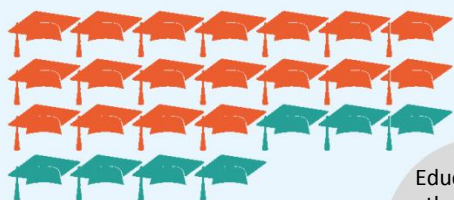

In the EU, about 60 regional/minority languages have official status

In 11 education systems, primary level teachers teach foreign languages alongside the other curriculum subjects

Expected minimum CEFR level of attainment at the end of general upper secondary education

1st foreign language

Education systems that expect...

-  B2 level
-  B1 level
-  A2 level

2nd foreign language

For more information read the Eurydice report: Key Data on Teaching Languages at School in Europe 2017

<http://ec.europa.eu/eurydice>